URGE GOVERNOR TO AGAIN CONSIDER SPECIAL MEET

C. of C. Directors Back Up Assemblyman White; Get Wire From Lineberger

Action on two subjects of political importance was taken yesterday by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce directors.

Assemblyman John Robert White of 347 North Orange street was backed in his demand for a special session of the legislature to consider reapportionment of the state, by a resolution similar to that adopted by the Los Angeles Chamber in which Governor William D. Stephens was asked to reconsider his action in denying southern California this opportunity of settling the matter.

It was explained that six more representatives and probably two senators will be gained by the counties south of the Tehachapi on account of phenomenal population increases if the reapportionment is carried out according to the provisions of the constitution of California.

Lineberger Telegram

The second and equally important action taken by the Chamber was introduced by Attorney W. E. Evans, who recently returned from Washington, D. C. He had Secretary James M. Rhodes read a telegram received from Congressman Walter F. Lineberger seeking advice on the acceptance of an appointment to the Rivers and Harbors committee which was vacated by Congressman Osborne of the Tenth district who has been advanced to the House Appropriations committee. Following is the text of the telegram:

"Have been nominated by house committee on committees for place on Rivers and Harbors committee vacated by resignation of Representative Osborne of Tenth District to Appropriations committee. Now member Foreign Affairs committee. Consult Chambers of Commerce and constituents your assembly district and wire me if you think I should make change."

WALTER F. LINEBERGER.

On motion of Attorney Owen C. Emery the board went on record as favoring the change and congratulated Congressman Lineberger on his opportunity to better serve the people of southern California by being in (Continued on Page 2)

William Sproule! Here Is Something for You to Ponder

Glendale will not down! As people were reading yesterday that President William Sproule says the S. P. depot here must do for the present, Peter L. Ferry, director of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the special committee to confer with the railroad, announced that arrangements had been made for an interview with Superintendent Whalen of the Los Angeles divisional offices. The subject? A new Southern Pacific station, of course. Eventually, why not now?

ENTHUSIAST MAKES AUTO RACE TRACK OF BEAR LAKE

H. D. Salveter Speeds on Big Body of Water; Yet, It Is Well Frozen

Claiming the distinction of having driven an automobile all over Big Bear lake last week-end, H. D. Salveter has returned to Glendale to continue the activities of the California House. Numbering company—the firm that stencils lamp black numbers on the curb and doorstep for a small fee.

The idea is being put in practice here first and meets the approval of both City Manager W. H. Reeves and City Engineer E. L. Hill. Mr. Salveter is a designer and builder by profession and resides at 828 East Villa street, Pasadena.

Just a week ago today the Pasadena left the Crown City for Big Bear lake, starting at 9 o'clock in the morning. He was caught in one of the worst sand storms that ever passed through the Cucamonga district and by driving at terrific speed with only a car's length sight ahead he arrived in San Bernardino at 11 a. m.

Ice Covered Highway

The next part of the journey to Victorville was very uneventful and after dinner he started into the mountains, it seemingly growing a degree colder with every mile traversed. On the shady sides of Johnson grade he ran into ice covered road. Being without chains, necessity was the mother of invention and some rope was laced on the wheels with the same effect as grandpa's woolen sox in the good old days.

Mr. Salveter arrived shortly after 4 p. m. at the lake and he reports that the road is open, except for a stretch between Baldwin and Big Bear where cars are almost sure to get mired. This is caused by the snow melting in the last fortnight from three and one-half to eighteen inches. The melting mush has frozen and makes skiing the popular pastime.

The lake, also, is solidly frozen and last Thursday morning Mr. Salveter got up at 7 o'clock after a night at Pine Knot lodge, found the temperature 15 degrees above zero, and not having his skates along he walked out on the lake and figured it out mathematically the ice was strong enough to hold his light car.

Why Not Stage Race

For the first time in their recollection the natives saw an automobile spinning around over the crumby crust of the big pond, taking traction fine, and several suggested that a thrilling race could be staged there in the winter.

Mr. Salveter succeeded in renting two homes for the summer and now is back on the job in Glendale numbering the homes here on the doorsteps and curbs—a much superior system to the present method, he says.

Mrs. Max Weil Gives Luncheon for Visitor

Mrs. Max Weil of 353 West California street gave a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Ethel Weinberg of Chicago, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Van Grove, of Los Angeles. Covers were laid for ten. The decorations were carried out in a color scheme of orchid.

The guests included Miss Ethel Weinberg, Mrs. Weinberg, Mrs. William Van Grove, Mrs. Jack Van Grove, Mrs. E. Oxford, Mrs. George Webb, Mrs. M. Weinstein, Mrs. Joe Schulman and the hostess, Mrs. Weil.

She was accompanied also by Mrs. Morgan's niece, Miss Eleanor Collins of Los Angeles, who will visit relatives in New York and vicinity.

ADULTS, YOUNG FOLK HONOR MEMORY OF MISS MIDCALE 4 - ROOM UNIT

Service Outstanding Feature of Teacher's Life, Say
Those Who Knew

Heaven is richer, the earth is poorer because of the death of Miss Clara Midcale.

Such was the sincere opinion expressed at her funeral services in the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon, Tuesday, March 14, 1922, and echoed by the hearts of so many juvenile and adult friends who loved her in life and will cherish her memory in death.

"Service was the outstanding characteristic of Clara Midcale," declared Dr. A. C. Stevens fervently. "That is why she is dead now. She just wanted to pour out her whole life in helpfulness. She saved others; herself she could not save."

Highest tribute was paid to Miss Midcale's sterling character by Rev. Stevens, who came to Glendale from San Francisco especially to be present at the funeral services. Before coming west on account of the illness of her mother, Miss Midcale served four years as a personal worker in the First Methodist church of St. Paul, of which Rev. Stevens was pastor.

Got Close to People

"She got so close to people that they responded wonderfully," remarked Rev. Stevens, sketching a word picture of the affection in which Miss Midcale was regarded when he mentioned the fact that she was known among her friends as "Middy."

"In her natural way she found her place everywhere," continued Rev. Stevens. "She had that fine thing—enthusiasm. She kept young! Her life was filled with time enough for everything. Her life had that about it which will make you remember her. You couldn't forget the fact that Clara Midcale lived and served. I have seen her tested in a thousand ways."

"Clara Midcale was a good citizen. I would rather have the affection of boys and girls and teachers and townspeople than the plaudits of thousands who never knew her."

Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, spoke briefly of the matchless character exhibited by Miss Midcale as assistant principal of the Intermediate school.

Never Avoided Any Task

"The privilege has been given me of saying a few words of the service which Miss Midcale rendered to the schools of Glendale," asserted Mr. White. "I feel that this is a privilege, indeed, but I feel that it is well-nigh impossible of fulfillment. I think I haven't the words to express the full measure of her service."

"When I came to the Glendale schools I felt that there was a woman with whom I could trust the children of the community not only for their instruction, but also for their moral development. That feeling, during the nine long years that I have been privileged to work beside Miss Midcale, has grown constantly."

"No matter how big the task placed before her, Miss Midcale never flinched. She never, in any circumstance, thought of self. I feel that in the wonderful character she possessed the one outstanding feature was patriotism. Patriotism means service."

"I think, my friends, you are going to pardon me if I don't say many words. I am going to try to sum it all up: The message that I believe (Continued on Page 2.)

APPROVE PLANS FOR COLUMBUS SCHOOL 4 - ROOM UNIT

Bids to Be Called for in Few Days; Offers to Buy Residence Received

Plans for the new four-room brick unit for the Columbus school were approved last night at the Intermediate school by the grammar school board of trustees and Architect Alfred P. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue was instructed to advertise for bids as soon as possible. He stated that he would be able to do so in about a week.

For the purchase of H. G. Henning home, which is to be moved from its present site at 203 East Elk street, bids were received from Harry M. Miller, 114 East Broadway, and from A. H. Chapman, 135 South Louise street. The matter was referred to J. D. Hibben, president of the board, and Richardson W. White, superintendent of schools, with power to act. They were requested also to see what can be done towards the disposal of the Charles M. Turck home, which is to be moved from its present location at 1013 South Glendale avenue, and for which no bids were received.

Besides Principal George O. Moyle, those present were: Dr. Harry V. Brown, 144 North Orange street; Dan Campbell, North Glendale; Capt. T. D. Watson, 526 North Central avenue; H. W. Varick, 347 West Wilson avenue; Mrs. John R. White, 347 North Orange street, and Mrs. Blanche A. Gardiner, Eagle Rock.

Veterans' Daughters Plan Big Reception

At the meeting of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, of which Mrs. Susie Peck is president, and which took place last night in American Legion hall three granddaughters of veterans, Estelle Small, Vera Carver and Elma Carver were initiated. Arrangements were made for a reception to be given the afternoon of March 25 to the members of N. P. Banks Camp, N. P. Banks Post, and W. R. C. Mrs. E. B. Moore will have charge of the program for that day.

The relief work at Thornycroft is becoming one of the most important features of the Tent activities. The boys there are being supplied with substantial wearing apparel as may be needed from time to time and also receive comforts in the nature of dainties and little luxuries, which the normal young man requires. A great deal of the revenue for this purpose is derived from the labor of the daughter of a veteran who donates a percentage of her earnings through the sale of novelties.

Mrs. Susie Peck, president of the Tent, will attend meeting tonight of the Daughters' Memorial Home board in the Higgins building, Los Angeles.

Class B Teams In Elks' League to Play

The fifth round of play in Class B of the Elks scratch bowling league will take place tonight at the club alleys with the following teams lined up against each other:

Lawrences and Vogels, Wattles and Salmacias, Wests and Bullards. The results of the first two named matches will be particularly observed by the league followers, due to the fact that the Wattles and Lawrences are separated by but half a game for the leadership. A decisive defeat for either of these teams will place the other in a commanding position in the percentage columns.

OFFERS TO SELL SELF TO SAVE MOTHER'S EYESIGHT

LOS ANGELES, March 15.—To raise $1500 for an operation to restore his mother's fast failing eyesight, Charlie Jones, 23, garage mechanic of Anaheim, today sought to sell himself for life. All that he required of his taskmaster, in addition to the stipulated sum, is the means to clothe and feed himself, it was stated.

STRONGHOLD OF REBELLING MINERS IS NOW CAPTURED

LONDON, March 15.—Fordsburg, the stronghold of the rebelling miners in South Africa, was captured today by government troops after a seventy-minute bombardment, according to a dispatch from Johannesburg. The troops now are engaged in clearing the Fordsburg streets. It is reported that hundreds of prisoners were taken. Many of the rebels who escaped capture are falling back toward Langlaagte, hoping to make a firmer stand there. DEFENSE LAWYER UPHOLDS MRS. OBENCHAIN'S STORY

LOS ANGELES, March 15.—Upholding Madalynne Obenchain's story that J. Belton Kennedy was slain by the "two roughly dressed men" she said she saw fleeing from the scene of the crime, Defense Attorney Al MacDonald, in his address to the jury in her trial for the murder, today defended Arthur Burch, co-defendant in the case. Having attacked the prosecution's theory that Mrs. Obenchain was a "woman scorned," MacDonald shifted to the second line of defense, that Mrs. Obenchain cannot be guilty because, he claimed, Burch was not the slayer.

STATE'S WITNESS IN FATTY TRIAL TO BE ATTACKED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—That the defense in the third trial of Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle will savagely attack the credibility of the state's witnesses was indicated today by questions put to prospective jurors as to the weight they would give to testimony from "discredited" witnesses. Some hint of this plan was also given in announcement that the defense would call double the number of witnesses in this trial as compared to the number that testified in either the first or second manslaughter cases. Six tentative jurors, including two women, were in the jury box when court convened for the third day of the trial today. It is not anticipated that the box will be tentatively filled before tomorrow after which it will be quickly emptied by peremptory challenges. This is expected to prolong the task of jury selection into next week.

CHICAGO FIRE INCENDIARY, AUTHORITIES BELIEVE

CHICAGO, March 15.—Evidence of incendiaryism was found today by the authorities investigating the disastrous fire which wiped out an entire block of buildings in the Union Depot business district this morning, reducing great structures to gaunt skeletons and causing a property damage variously estimated from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, killing one man and injuring scores of others. It was the greatest Chicago fire since the historic conflagration of 1871. (Continued on page 4)

SENIOR CLASS CAST TO PRESENT TRIO OF SHORT PLAYS

Three One Act Productions to Be Given at School on Thursday and Friday

Rehearsals are progressing very pleasantly for the one-act plays to be given by the senior dramatics class of Glendale Union High school Thursday and Friday nights at 8:15 o'clock, at the school. The plays to be presented are "Neighbors," by Zona Gale, "Hearts to Mend" and "Sham."

"Neighbors" is a humorous tale of small-town folks. The hero, Peter (Fred Terzo) is a shy, awkward country boy in love with Inez (Evelyn Gregg). The play centers around a group of people who are absorbed in themselves until they hear that a small boy is coming to live with one of them. They are so excited about fixing up for him that they forget about themselves entirely.

The second play, "Hearts to Mend," is a fantasy. Pierrette (Doris Packer) is a gay, young creature, only made sad by the actions of Pierrot (William Justema). Doris Packer has won a place for herself in the community by her pronounced talent for dramatic work. William Justema lately had one of his plays read before the Drama League of Southern California.

Satire On Social Life

The third and last play, "Sham," is a comical satire on social life. The main character is the thief (Paul Hutchinson). He breaks into the house but discovers that everything is sham and imitation. The householder (Kenneth Jackson) and his wife (Dorothy Peart) arrive home unexpectedly. The thief has to use his wits in order to escape, so he delivers a lecture on the sham of the house.

The play is filled with laughs and is one which will be long remembered by those who witness it. Much interest is being displayed at the High school in the plays and "crowded houses" are assured, say those in charge.

LOCAL ROTARY CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND S. F. SESSION

District Conference to Open in North; Meeting Here
at Noon Tomorrow

Glendale will be represented at the seventh annual district conference of the twenty-third district International Rotary at San Francisco this week-end by a half dozen of its prominent citizens.

Already J. Herbert Smith, secretary, and Roy L. Kent, vice president, accompanied by their wives, left by motor car yesterday afternoon as the official representatives of the local Rotary club. Harry S. Webb and George M. Karr and party left last night.

Three special cars from Arizona and eleven cars from Southern California will comprise a special train to leave Los Angeles over the Southern Pacific this evening for the north. More than 100 members from the metropolis and 200 more from other points will be in the party.

Local Meeting Tomorrow

It is expected that the conference will consummate plans for the entertainment on the coast of the thousands of Rotarians from all parts of the world who will gather in Los Angeles the latter part of May.

Y. M. Hollister will act as chairman of club meeting tomorrow noon while W. E. Hewitt will serve as secretary. C. E. Neale is arranging for the entertainment features.

John W. Cotton to Talk at Ruskin Club

John W. Cotton, artist, of 1137 San Rafael street, will speak today before the Ruskin club in Los Angeles. His talk will be on the collection of prints in the Congressional Library at Washington, D. C. Some of the prints in that collection are the work of Mr. Cotton.

SELL TUESDAY CLUB LOTS ON BRAND AND LEXINGTON

Endicott & Larson Make Large
Deal and Local Residents Secure Choice Property

At the annual "Husbands' night" of the Tuesday afternoon club's year, the "mothers" and "sisters" had a happy surprise in store for their lords and masters who were gathered together last night to see what all this club business is about.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the organization, appeared upon the rostrum on the Pearl Keller studio auditorium and announced the sale of the club's property on the southeast corner of Lexington drive and Brand boulevard at a price which will net $20,000 (Salvos of Applause).

The deal, it is stated, was made through the realty offices of Endicott & Larson, 118 South Brand boulevard, that firm having held an option on the property. Walter B. Burger of 314 North Central avenue and his two brothers, Frank E. and Howard P. Burger of Los Angeles, bought the corner, 100 feet fronting on Brand and 135 feet on Lexington, which they expect to improve with a two-story building. They paid all cash. The Burgers are capitalists, having retired recently from the Burger Iron Works.

Local Woman Invests

The remaining 50 feet of property fronting on Brand, which formed a part of the club's holdings, has been sold through the same agency to Mrs. Willa W. Smith of 21 Salem street. The completion of the deal makes it possible for the Tuesday Afternoon club to proceed with plans for the improvement of the northeast corner of Lexington and Central avenue, which was recently acquired.

Mrs. Hutchinson stated last night that the members of the board are to meet tonight with Architect Alfred F. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue at which time it is expected that the final approval of the plans for the new clubhouse will be made. An expenditure of $50,000 is contemplated by the organization.

Speaking of this record transaction, J. A. Endicott this morning said that the average price of property in the block between California and Lexington on Brand now is $275 to $300 per front foot and in the block between California and Wilson is being held for $400 to $450 per front foot. "I consider it the best buy in business property in Southern California today."

Two-Story Structures

"Every building planned for the north end of Brand boulevard's business section today is not less than two stories in height, which means it will be one of the best shopping sections of the city. The opening of Patterson avenue as a main east and west artery of travel from San Fernando road through Glendale will mean a great deal to North Brand as well as all of Glendale's principal business district.

"About ten days ago we sold the third lot north of Lexington drive on the west side of Brand which will be improved with a business block by its new owners. Personally, Mr. Larson and myself are backing our own judgment by investing in property on North Brand ourselves."

Mrs. William Hunter Is Hostess to Section

The members of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. A. H. Montgomery is curator, met yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. William Hunter, 107 East Lomita avenue, and completed plans for the informal card party and dance to be given by them Friday night in the new Odd Fellows' Hall in the Ralphs building at Broadway and Orange streets. Prizes will be awarded. The names of Mrs. Harry McMullin and Mrs. C. H. Thompson and Mrs. C. W. Kingsley have been added to the list of patronesses for this occasion.

Harry R. Schenck to Make Home in North

Harry R. Schenck of 113 East Elk avenue left Saturday for Sacramento, where he is establishing himself in business. He has purchased territorial rights for Sacramento and the surrounding country for a radius of fifty miles, including Marysville and Stockton, for a paint remover and motor cleaner.

Mr. Schenck has been prominent in the motion picture world for several years. He was production manager for Universal City when they practically closed down. Mrs. Schenck and their little daughter, June, left Tuesday night to join him. Their many friends regret their departure from Glendale, but as they have returned to make their home here twice after leaving for business reasons, there are friends who believe they may return a third time.

SECURE NIGHT WATCHMAN

Frank E. Abbott of 221 North Howard street has been employed as a night watchman for Glendale Union High school. The board of trustees felt that the investment was too large for the property to go unattended.

she would say could she speak. I believe that her message to us would be 'carry on.' She would want us to show forth in our lives the high ideals which inspired her."

Pastor Pays Tribute
Rev. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church, where Miss Midcalf led a Queen Esther class, also spoke most highly of her.

"May her life be a precious example to us and may we follow in her footsteps," said he. "Down beneath all her fine character was the fundamental fact that she was a good woman. She was a woman who literally gave her life to others. The thing which really inspired her life was her service to others."

"This is a good world. There is evidence that a great deal of wickedness abounds, but I am convinced as much as ever that God is in His world. When I think of God's presence in the world, I think of children and flowers—these wonderful flowers that are here today and their fragrance. God could have made them otherwise. He could have made them in black and white and He could have given us the flower without its perfume."

Besides a number of other appropriate passages of Scripture, Rev. Stevens read "The Twenty-third Psalm."

"Rock of Ages" was sung by M. S. Kuehny, Frank Butterfield, Miss Dorothy Peart, Miss Isabelle Isgrig with Mrs. Harriet Randall at the organ. Members of this quartet also sang a solo and duet.

The entire center of the church was occupied by pupils from the Intermediate school.

The funeral was in charge of Pulliam & Kiefer. The body was placed in a vault at the Grandview cemetery to await the arrival of a brother from the east.

Teachers, who had been closely associated with Miss Midcalf, served as honorary pall-bearers. Among them were Miss Carrie Noble, principal of the Intermediate school; Miss Lulu Woolridge, Miss Frances Jackson, Miss Edna F. Duffey, Miss Carol A. Duncan, Miss Alice Lookabaugh, Miss Adelia M. Salstrom and Miss Vera Sinclair.

Relatives In Attendance

The services were attended by the following relatives and dear friends: Mrs. H. L. Redd and daughter, Miss Cleo Redd, 214 East Garfield street; Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Haskell, son Harlan and daughter Norma, 241 North Howard street; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Midcalf, 419 West California avenue; Miss Alice Midcalf and Holman Midcalf, 111 North Orange street; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Midcalf and daughters, Rosalie and Jeanne, of Ventura; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blake, Barbara and Ralph, Jr., from Fresno; Jack Blake from the Harvard Military School, Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary J. Lewis, Miss Maxine Simpson, Los Angeles; Miss Gertrude Estelle, Ventura; Miss N. Bruh, Mrs. J. B. Spahr, Miss Helen Butler, Mrs. B. Woolones, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Plattner, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Page, and R. E. Hegster of Los Angeles.

Two brothers, Robert H. Midcalf of Honolulu and J. W. Midcalf of Saginaw, Michigan, were unable to be present.

a position to further Los Angeles harbor improvement.

Message Is Sent
The following message was ordered sent:

"Glendale Chamber of Commerce believes your acceptance of appointment on Rivers and Harbors committee for the best interest of all concerned and congratulates you on the opportunity of so serving your district."

J. S. Durham appeared before the board and explained his plan for taking a church census of Glendale, which includes a visitation to every home by the member of some religious faith. The purpose of this is to invite every man, woman and child to attend church. It is carried on under the auspices of the state and national Sunday School associations.

"All the different faiths—Catholics, Jews and Protestants—work together to this end," he said, "the same as they do in civic matters."

Request Is Granted
"Co-operation is the life of all things," added Mr. Durham in urging home his desire to have the Chamber of Commerce act as a neutral headquarters for the religious drive. On motion of Director Peter L. Ferry his request was granted.

Secretaries Rhoades and Sanders were instructed to do the preliminary work in connection with the junketing trip of 200 members of the Chamber in 50 motorcars into the tributary communities some time the latter part of this month or the first of April. Opening of highways to Griffith park, electric signs and other subjects were discussed.

Corn Belt Hog Gets Credit for Prosperity

CHICAGO, March 15.—It was the corn belt hog that started the agricultural pendulum swinging from depression toward prosperity.

The porker, says the bi-monthly report of the Chicago livestock exchange, has rooted his way out of the mire of depression.

An extra $30,000,000 for hogs was remitted to the farmers the first two months of 1922 as the result of advancing prices, the report says.

The turn in general business conditions in the grain states is directly credited to the rise in hog values.

The average hog brought $6.62 per hundred pounds on the Chicago market December 5 last. By February 16 the price was $10 and the month closed with a top of $11.04.

"I chopped 'em off with a hatchet," he remarked with some pride. The teacher fainted.

The juvenile court authorities are investigating the case.

"WHY I SEND MY WASH TO THE LAUNDRY"

Mrs. H—, a housekeeper of 25 years' experience, gives six reasons why she prefers to send her family wash to the laundry:

- 1 The route collector comes at approximately the same time on the same day of the week.
- 2 My clothes are returned on the same day each week.
- 3 When I open my bundle I can check off the articles by the laundry's list, and then check their list against my original.
- 4 My laundry makes good promptly on lost articles.
- 5 My clothes are returned cleaned, sweet-smelling, wellironed and carefully folded.
- 6 The laundry's charge for the finished service is within my reach to meet regularly, and is fair and adequate. I pay only for the amount of clothes sent out, and am not charged for any supplies used or for extra service of any kind.

LETTER ISSUED BY HUSBANDS' NIGHT BY EX-CHIEF MARTIN ABOUT 'MIX-UP'

Former Police Head Asserts
He Is Willing to Await Verdict From Future

Allen O. Martin, until recently chief of police of the city of Glendale, has submitted the following publication:

"In justice to my many friends in Glendale, and the east who have believed in me, I wish to call their attention to the following facts regarding the police 'mixup.'"

"I came to Glendale, vouched for by some of the most prominent men in the United States, who considered me worthy of any trust where ability and honesty are required. I am proud to say that their faith in me has not been betrayed and never will be.

"The charges brought against me were absolutely false and I showed conclusively that they were, without any assistance from any person.

"I have always treated callers at my office with courtesy and respect, regardless of who they were, and many of them can testify. I have always treated unfortunates who were arrested, in a kindly and humane manner, as several wanted to testify at my trial.

"I have also taken a great interest in children's welfare and have helped them, as their parents can witness.

Should Not Be Autocrat
During the winter months while I was chief, and other cities were overrun with criminals, Glendale was almost free from crime. I consider myself too much of a man to frame up on any one, and I have never needed money badly enough to resort to such methods.

"The chief of police should not be an autocrat and forget that he is a servant of the people, and not of politicians or crooks, but should be a broadminded man and treat every person, whether a citizen or policeman, with fairness and consideration.
"It is distressing for me to think that my character and honesty have been questioned regardless of the council's vindication, but I am Christian enough to know that the future will show up my traducers and their backers."

Glee Club of University of Southern California Is the Feature of Program

"Husbands' night," an annual event with the Tuesday Afternoon club, was fittingly observed at the Pearl Keller studio last night by the 300 members, husbands and friends of the organization. St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments and it could almost be said that "the men went home green with envy for the good times their women folk enjoy."
On behalf of the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, Mrs. Hutchinson welcomed the guests of the evening and then introduced Horatio Cogswell, director, and the members

Today's World News In Brief

(By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

Frank Carsey, a former employee of a confectionery concern in the building where the fire started, was held for questioning, and the authorities indicated that startling disclosures would follow. When the fire was placed under control shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, after burning fiercely since midnight, investigation was started to learn the cause. Carsey was found by Fire Attorney Shirley T. High after Harry P. Schiff, president of Schafer & Co., where the fire started, told the police the man had threatened him. Carsey, who is a chauffeur, laughed at the suggestion that he started the fire. Fire Attorney High, who questioned Carsey, said he wanted it understood that Carsey was frank in his answers and that he was not under arrest. Following are high spots in the situation in Chicago today: The fire—In the heart of Chicago's Union Depot business district. Most disastrous fire since the conflagration of '71. The effect—Seven great structures, including the 16-story Burlington building, gutted. Nearly fifty firms burned out. More than 20,000 thrown out of work. The property loss—Estimated by officials between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000; other estimates considerably higher. The toll—One fireman, J. McGovern, killed, and scores injured. The probable cause—Incendiarism. Frank Carsey, a chauffeur, being held for inquiry.

TREATY FIGHT MAY CAUSE BIG SPLIT OF DEMOCRATS
WASHINGTON, March 15.—Growing dissension among democratic senators split on the four-power Pacific treaty was reported today to be causing a serious ruction in the higher councils of the democratic party which threatened to lead to another fight for national control between the pro-Wilson and anti-Wilson forces. With Senator Oscar W. Underwood and William Jennings Bryan pulling for the treaty, and democratic leaders still counted as adherents of former President Wilson pulling against it, the ill-feeling already engendered between the opposition forces was said to be spreading far beyond the senate chamber. Several influential democratic senators were understood to be deploring the probable effect on the approaching congressional campaign of democrats fighting among themselves over a treaty proposed by a republican administration. Underwood is expected to hold enough democratic senators in line to assist the republican majority to ratify the treaty, but once the armament conference pacts are all out of the way, it is considered not improbable that a concerted move will be made on the democratic side to wrest from the Alabama senator his titular leadership which most of his democratic colleagues are now refusing to recognize. The known activities of Bernard M. Baruch, former Secretary of the Navy Daniels and other pronounced pro-Wilson men around the senate since the treaty fight began, have, it was declared, been directed as much against Underwood's leadership as against the four-power pact itself.

Hi-Y Boys Guests at Thom Ranch Banquet

The members of Group 2 of the local Hi-Y association, headed by their leader, G. Edwin Murphy, enjoyed their "biggest" night of the year on Monday night, when they were the guests of Livingston Thom at an "open air" banquet held at the Thom ranch in north Glendale. Fifteen boys took part in the affair, which had previously been postponed several times.

The youthful merry-makers gathered at their headquarters at the First Methodist church on East Wilson avenue at 7 o'clock, after which they journeyed to "the scene of action." The "feed," which included broiled steaks cooked in front of camp fires, was followed by a number of outdoor games, the party ending in a free-for-all battle with lemons used as ammunition.

Those who took part in the festivities were Livingston Thom, G. Edwin Murphy, Fred Stoff, Neil McIvor, Lee Payne, Fred Hand, Chester Green, Jack Wright, Theodore Haig, Newton McGillis, Paul Edmonds, Clarence Hall, Cecil Wilson, Norman Beggs and Laufman Jeter.

Next Monday night has been designated by the Group members as "parents' night" and will be observed at a banquet and special entertainment to be held in the social hall of the First Methodist church. The parents of the members will be the guests of honor at the occasion.

Miss Marjorie Imler Guest Aboard Warship

Mrs. Adelaide H. Imler of 336 West Park avenue is in receipt of a letter from her daughter, Miss Marjorie Imler, who is a senior at the University of California in Berkeley, telling of her recent attendance at a dinner aboard the U. S. S. California, which is at present stationed in San Francisco harbor. She was the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. S. A. Kellogg.

Mrs. Kellogg, who is a sister member with Miss Imler in the Sigma Kappa sorority, was visited at her home in Kansas by Miss Imler several years ago. The two young women have been friends for a number of years. Mrs. Kellogg graduated from the University of Kansas last year, while Miss Imler will receive her diploma from the University of California in May of this year.

Bobbs—"The modern woman is certainly going a faster clip than she used to."
Slobbs—"In spite of which it still takes her about forty years to reach the age of 25."

MANY CRITICS SAY 'HAIL THE WOMAN' ONE OF BEST

Drama of American Life Is Now Being Shown Upon T. D. & L. Screen

Declared by critics to be one of the greatest photoplays of all time—a human epic of triumphant realism—"Hail the Woman," Thos. H. Ince's super drama of American life, is at the T. D. & L. theatre today.

There are as many different opinions as to what constitutes a "good picture" in the fullest sense of the word, as there are colors in a rainbow. Yet all opinions agree on the subject of "Hail the Woman." One critic, who prides himself on having seen every production of note in the realm of motion pictures, sat spellbound through the pre-view of "Hail the Woman."

What One Critic Said
At the conclusion of the picture, the critic walked out of the theatre, slowly and deep in thought. Then he turned to his companion and said: "I do not know what some people call a 'good' picture; yet, if a picture that makes you leave the theatre with tears in your eyes, and a happy heart, and a desire to accomplish an indefinite something great, is a good picture, then 'Hail the Woman' is one of the best pictures I have ever seen."

W. W. McElroy Trifle Worried Over Outlook

W. W. McElroy of 510 South Adams street, who is having his business block at 109-111 South Brand boulevard, remodeled, was surveying the job yesterday.

"Well, do you know how it will look when it's finished?" he was asked.

"No, and I don't know how my pocketbook will look, either," he replied.

Many Girls Present at Meeting of Club

Col. R. W. Richardson makes final call for all Nebraskans to rally for the postponed picnic reunion which will be held in Sycamore Grove Park all day Thursday, March 16. President Richardson will arrange all the usual picnic attractions including program over which he will preside. The Cornhuskers of all Southern California are asked to rally and meet the old friends again.

Nell—"Make a bluff. It doesn't cost anything to put on a good front."

Belle—"I don't know about that. The more cheek a girl has, the more it costs her to color it."

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

'Phone Girl Heroines Join Glendale's Motorcade
'Country Papers Clean'
Say It With a Smile

By Gil A. Cowan

ONCE in a while the telephone girl gets some small share of the credit which is due her.

Following the Knickerbocker theatre disaster in Washington, D. C., the story is told how someone stepped into a pay phone station and told the operator what had happened.

"This girl realized the situation," says the Chicago Evening Post, "communicated the information to other members of the operating force, and within ten minutes seventy-two physicians residing in the Columbia exchange district, where was located the theatre, were told of the disaster; the city was notified, a report was made to the war department and to the municipal government offices, and the work of rescue and relief was almost instant."

It is not the first time that a telephone girl has been a heroine—they are if given the opportunity. In floods, fire and war they keep at their post. When it seems as though the whole switchboard is registering calls at the same time, the one, two, three or a hundred operators untangle the calls somehow.

Maybe you are slighted, cut off with a short word, or forced to wait your turn to get information, but it is not intentional—not if you personally knew the girls of the Glendale exchange—or most any other switchboard for that matter.

What a lot of fun is in store for those who go on the Chamber of Commerce junketing trip through the territory tributary to Glendale.

Getting out and getting acquainted is half of the joy in life. Everybody who possibly can spare the day should be in the motorcade.

Plenty of personal advertising as well as civic publicity will be gained by this enterprise. Watch for further details.

"The country papers are clean." This seems to be the consensus of editorial opinion now being expressed.

"The country papers are financially successful." That is the verdict of the business men who deal with them.

"The country papers pull the business." That is what the most intelligent advertising men of the country now believe.

Yes, the "home town" paper has been brought into its own, perhaps by the President, but more likely because of merit actually earned.

People read and believe that which they see in a representative newspaper that caters to their particular needs. Only yesterday five people gathered together in a public building confessed that they read almost every line in The Glendale Evening News each night before retiring.

Such a statement was not strange to the writer. The city papers are filled with froth, as are many of the smaller town sheets. They lack the personal touch. They do not "ring true."

Advertising, judiciously concentrated in the "home town" papers, will create and perpetuate more patronage than ten times the blare in the other type of publications.

The facts speak for themselves.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you. Cry and you cry alone."

That hackneyed saying expresses a thought that comes to mind. A big real estate operator came into the office the other morning—last Thursday, to be exact—and cheerily called right out loud:

"Just to see your beaming face (he might have been addressing any one employed by The Evening News) is a pleasure that sends me on my way glad that I am in Glendale."

"Say it with a smile" is the best slogan any organization can have. That typifies the spirit with which our work is done. In the words of the street urchin, "Look me over, kid."

In the ten long, lean years, some longer and some leaner, that the present management has directed the destinies of The Glendale Evening News there has never a person heard the phrase: "Business is bum and getting bummer," or words to that effect.

No-sirree.

"Business is good and getting better," has been the optimistic note ever sounded. When a Pasadena daily paper winked out, and half a dozen others followed its course (especially noting the Los Angeles Tribune which was an auxiliary to an evening paper), did The Glendale Evening News give up the ghost?

It did not! Everything it had was given the community each day. And to the loyal firms who played their part in consistently advertising throughout the war time, great credit is due. Yet, in a great measure, they have been amply repaid by splendid business successes. Such is the way of the world!

Paris Finds Way to End Auto Slaughter

PARIS—The prefect of police of Paris, Robert Loullier, has found a radical means of obliging drivers of motor vehicles in the streets to be more careful. So many accidents to pedestrians have occurred through carelessness that M. Loullier has issued instructions that in future when any motor vehicle runs down a pedestrian or is in any way responsible for serious collisions the car shall be confiscated and put under seal and the driver sent to prison.

Should the driver be found guilty he shall serve a term of imprisonment and his car will be sold. If let free he shall be allowed to regain possession of his car.

LOCAL LEGION WILL SHARE IN RECEIPTS FROM PICTURE

'I Accuse' Starts Today at the Glendale Theatre; Praised by European Critics

Seldom has there been made a stronger human and spiritual appeal in any motion picture than that which runs all through the United Artists presentation of Abel Gance's sensational production, "I Accuse," which has been booked for the feature by the management of the Glendale Theatre beginning today.

Mr. Gance, French poet and dramatist, author and producer of this photoplay, calls it his masterpiece, and the prediction freely is made that the film will stand, not only from the point of view of literature and dramatic poetry, but even as a work of tremendous historical value. The picture which the United Artists is presenting in the United States, quickly won the lasting approval of the public and the critics throughout all Europe, it having been shown generally in the principal cities of the allied countries.

What Critics Say
European critics have this to say:

"'I Accuse' should be shown as a subject with a tremendous theme. The film deserves this treatment, for it has been wonderfully produced." "Never has there been such an artistic production. The camera men who made this film have paid a great tribute to art. The artistic merits surpass those of many of the great American films."

The American Legion will share in the receipts of the theatre during the run of this film for three days.

10 Menaces to Nation Are Seen by Women

NEW YORK—Ten menaces to American democracy have been listed for the guidance of women voters by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, pioneer in the feminist movement and founder of the League of Women Voters.

She engaged in a spirited controversy with Governor Miller, who charges that an independent woman's political group is a menace to the state.

The real menaces to the state, Mrs. Catt declared, are:

"First—The greatest menace is the illiteracy of the electorate, because an illiterate vote is a controlled vote."

"Second—The second menace is ignorance. Those who read their ballots but do not understand them vote somebody else's opinion instead of their own."

"Third—Too partisan partisanship, which is true of seventy-five per cent of the membership of both parties."

"Fourth—Indifference, which is almost worse than the controlled vote, because it gives control to the few. Voting wrong is better than not voting at all."

"Fifth—Government by groups. Because of the indifference of the many a few are left to do all the work, and this is not democratic."

"Sixth—The use of patronage to hold voters to the party standard. The job is the price paid for party loyalty, and the League of Women Voters will fight this practice by upholding the civil service."

"Seventh—The use of money, the saddest of all menaces."

"Eighth—Bosses."

"Ninth—Slander and abuse. This is the cheapest of the menaces but easy to use, because everybody likes gossip and enjoys spreading it. Bosses use it to becloud the real issues."

"Tenth—The most terrible of all menaces is when politics entirely breaks down, and then we have war."
